

Panelist

Lisa-Marie Kreibich

Asian Development Bank (ADB)

Ms. Lisa-Marie Kreibich works as a Social Sector Specialist for the South Asia Regional Department of ADB on the design and implementation of TVET projects in India, Bangladesh, and Nepal.

Prior to that she was with ADB's Sustainable Development and Climate Change Department developing knowledge products and providing technical inputs to TVET project concepts and studies.

Before joining ADB, Lisa spent 5 years with GIZ Vietnam as advisor to the Ministry of Labour, Invalids, and Social Affairs contributing to TVET policy reforms and as Head of Component in charge of the support for TVET Centers of Excellence in Vietnam.

She gained experience at the International Labour Organization and in the private sector.

Lisa holds a degree in International Business Management from the European School of Business, Germany and Reims Management School, France and a master's degree in Public Policy from the Hertie School of Governance, Germany.