

Panelist

Wahid Razzaly

Universiti Tun Hussein Onn Malaysia (UTHM)

Prof. Dr. Wahid Razzaly started his career as a lecturer in Civil Engineering at the Politeknik Ungku Omar in Perak in 1983, before moving to the Ministry of Education and later joining UTHM in 2001.

Professor Wahid is the Vice-Chancellor of Universiti Tun Hussein Malaysia (UTHM) since 2017. Prior to his current position he was assigned for different key position at UTHM, such as Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) from 2016-2017, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research) from 2012-2015, Dean of the Faculty for Vocational and Technical Education 2009-2012, Dean of Centre for Academic Development 2007-2009 and the head of QA Quality Management and corporate planning from 2003-2007.

Being a specialist in the field of TVET curriculum and engineering education, Wahid is also involved in supporting various academic related activities in the Board of Engineers Malaysia (BEM), Malaysian Qualification Agency (MQA), Higher Education Leadership Academy (Akept), Malaysia Examination Council (MEC) and others.

Internationally, he has been an active speaker in different scientific forums and also as a consultant.