Ulrike Schmidt

TVET Academy of GIZ/UNEVOC Centre Magdeburg

Prior to her position at GIZ, Ms. Ulrike Schmidt has been engaged amongst others as volunteer for the UNESCO Institute for Lifelong Learning and as TVET research assistant at Otto-von-Guericke University. In 2015 she graduated with a M.Sc./M.A. degree in “International Vocational Education” and ever since got involved as technical advisor in GIZ TVET projects so far for Mongolia, Vietnam and South Africa.

Her work focuses on planning, coordination and guidance of skills development processes and activities for TVET personnel as well as on strengthening dual structures of occupational training, including the support to public private partnerships.

As team member of the GIZ TVET Academy Ms. Ulrike Schmidt supports the portfolio development for competence development of TVET personnel as well as corresponding communication activities.
