

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Climate Change Team under the Environment, Climate Change and Natural Resource Management (ECCNRM) Cluster of GIZ India, I am very pleased to share our fifth update of knowledge products. It comprises knowledge products of the last 9 months which are available in the public domain with focus on popular articles, select technical reports and media coverage of select events, with a view towards wider outreach of our work's outcomes and key learnings.

Your feedback and comments are welcome.

Regards,

Anindya Das
