Welcome to Iloilo

Iloilo is known as the "Asia's City of Love" and the "Heart of the Philippines" because of its central location in the Philippine archipelago and the reputation of the Ilonggo people for their sweetness and gentleness, attributed to the tone of the Hiligaynon language. It is also referred to as the "Museum City of the Philippines" and the "City of Mansion"s due to the plethora of heritage houses and landmarks found throughout the city.

Iloilo City is the first city in the Philippines designated as UNESCO Creative City of Gastronomy. The city also serves as the regional hub for education, culinary arts, religion, healthcare, tourism, culture, industry, governance, and the economy in Western Visayas.
