

Network with colleagues and experts from all over the world

Transformation Tool Camp

Find
agile solutions for your challenges!

Bring your questions,
get expert input and
cutting edge digit-agile tools
for leadership &

Choose your own program

engage in exchange with peers
in International Cooperation

Find out more and register

Cooperation
&
Leadership

Design your personal learning journey
out of 3 tracks!

Join workshops, acquire tools,
and co-create solutions
for your digit-agile
challenges

Strategic Design

Leading Remote Teams

Claus-Bernhard Pakleppa is all about trends and their impacts on forms of organization and tomorrow's working world, change in organizations and leadership affected by digitization, agility, new work. In his element when it comes to international conferences and large-group facilitation.

Sonja Berdau is Economic and Social Development Project Manager and will be stewarding the learning track on Cooperation & Leadership

David Schmid David is supporting projects on methodological issues, many of them being implemented in fragile and remote contexts. As an advisor in the competence center "Change Management", he always wants to take a holistic and systemic view, using agile approaches where appropriate

Holger Nauheimer

The facilitator, coach and founder of the Berlin Change Days is passionate about bringing change to the world by helping leaders to discover their potential, and expanding their boundaries

Tarek Hassan is passionate about creating solutions through human-centered design. As a strategic designer in the competence center "Innovation, Learning, Knowledge", he supports projects using agile methodologies

Brigitta Villaronga is a passionate leader for International Cooperation and with her team in charge of GIZ Leadership Programs

Hosts & Stewards

Keynotes

Maja Göpel

is the vibrant Secretary of the WBGU and a German political economist with focus on Climate Change. She is an expert on the great mindshift and transformation towards sustainability.

Stefan Barth
CEO, Tarent AG

Mary Alice Arthur

shares her immense wisdom on how to impact through the power of storytelling.

Joachim Goeske

is Head of a GIZ Unit within GloBe pioneering new leadership for International Cooperation

Belina Raffy is specialised in developing communication, co-creation and change skills with people to better align our businesses with how nature and people thrive.

Top Acts

WALBRODT is Daniel Hoernemann's stage name @ Community Artworks

Annette Birkholz is a systemic Coach and Facilitator. Her focus is moderation of enterprise changes and leadership development through Archery.

Michael Schatzschneider or DJ „Treasure Tailor“

is not just a long-standing Trainer at AIZ but also a great DJ who will accompany the evening with his dream-away music.

Rik Berbé co-founded the Global Complexity Network a of universities, organizations and practitioners developing theory, frameworks and tools with the aim to act effectively under complexity and uncertainty.

Thomas Leder helps organizations to release the potential of itself and the business. He has worked with a wide array of business cultures.

Track 1: Cooperation & Leadership

Steward: Sonja Berdau (GIZ)

Thomas Klug specializes in change and transformation management, strategy implementation, innovation, dialog and joint thinking.

Lydia Schültken is the founder of #workhacks, which are agile, minimally-invasive methods to improve the cooperation and performance of teams.

Johann L Botha focuses on Storytelling and Story harvesting practices to reveal and develop organizational character.

Sabine Söder is a visual facilitator and strategic consultant with the mission to ease solutions for a constantly changing world.

Track 2: Leading Remote Teams

Steward: David Schmid (GIZ)

Susanne Conrad headed an internal E-Academy to build and implement impactful virtual learning spaces. She is an expert for organizational development and change as well as a certified online coach.

Tina Meckel facilitates and provides consulting in the fields of innovation, creativity and leadership development.

Melina Garibyan facilitates group workshops to find, tell and craft personal stories with a special focus on digital storytelling.

Howard B. Esbin is an expert in the field of leadership and personal development. He developed a software based solution to create trust through creativity for high performance virtual teams.

David Schmidt is one of the main advocates for Business Design in Germany and partner at the venture builder United Peers.

Aurelie Ferron is an Agile Coach and Design Thinking consultant, always up for talking about organizational change and intrapreneurship.

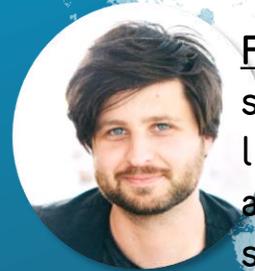

Tihomir Vollmann-Popovic is coaching agile methods, especially Scrum at Boris Gloger Consult. He developed the Agile Manifesto for International Cooperation.

Track 3: Strategic Design

Steward: Tarek Hassan (GIZ)

Daniela Marzavan

operates interculturally and across sectors within and between the disciplines of design research and thinking, management and organizational change.

Fabian Gampp is an innovation strategist, entrepreneur and lecturer with a focus on social- and sustainable innovation. He supports mission-driven organizations to expand their impact.

Tobias von Knobelsdorff of the innovation company zero360 is a Design Thinking expert as well as change and transformation manager.

Arvid Schwerin is a facilitator between Startups, SMEs and Politics. With strategy and methods like Design Thinking, he empowers organizational self-ownership.

Curious?
Register here
if you are
from GIZ

Transformation Tool Camp

August 26 – 27, 2019
@ Base Camp Bonn

Party & Evening
Program

Not GIZ
but curious?
Be part of our Community of Practice!
Register here

Looking forward to cocreating
with you!