SELECTION OF AN INDIVIDUAL CONSULTANT FOR THE EVALUATION OF THE WEST AFRICA REGIONAL NUTRITION STRATEGIC PLAN 2018-2025

The Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) is an international cooperation enterprise for sustainable development operating on all continents. It offers forward-looking solutions for political, economic, ecological and social development in a globalised world. GIZ supports complex processes of change and reform, sometimes under difficult conditions. Its main objective is to achieve sustainable improvements in the living conditions of people in the countries in which it operates.

In line with these objectives, GIZ has established a technical support agreement with the West African Health Organization (WAHO), which essentially covers nutrition. This technical assistance is in line with the implementation global programme "Food and Nutrition Security, Enhanced Resilience", one of the components of which is the promotion of large-scale fortification of staple foods in West Africa. The aim is to improve the regulatory framework and governance for food fortification. In this context, it is planned to evaluate the WAHO Regional Nutrition Strategic Plan 2018-2025, which has come to an end, in order to draw the necessary lessons and evidence to better guide the subregion's nutritional prospects. This call for proposals is open for the recruitment of a consultant to carry out this evaluation.

Participation in the competition is open on equal terms to all person meeting the conditions listed in the terms of reference accompanying this call for proposals. Interested service providers may obtain the TDRs by sending a request to BF_Inquiry@giz.de with the subject line « Dossier N°83492307_ sélection d'un.e consultant pour l'évaluation du plan stratégique régional de nutrition de l'Afrique de l'Ouest ». Deadline for submission 05.08.2025 at 4:30 pm.
