Erasmus Mundus Joint Masters (students) -

Apply for an Erasmus Mundus Joint Master. Students from all over the world are welcome. You will study at several universities in Europe and beyond. Full scholarships are available for the best students.

Why apply?

- Erasmus Mundus Joint Masters are prestigious international masters, jointly designed and delivered by a group of higher education institutions.
- They involve at least 3 institutions from at least 3 different countries, and multiple associated partners from the academic and non-academic world.
- Typically, they include periods of study, research, traineeship, thesis preparation and defence.

Scholarships available

Masters may also offer full scholarships to the best-ranked students worldwide. Scholarships cover your participation costs and contribute to

- travel
- visa
- a living allowance

Masters' duration

1 to 2 academic years (60, 90 or 120 ECTS credits).

Type of degree awarded

You will gain either:

- a joint degree (i.e. one single degree certificate issued on behalf of at least two higher education institutions) or
- multiple degrees (i.e. at least two-degree certificates issued by two higher education institutions of the consortium)

You'll be able to define these in detail when you sign a study agreement with the relevant Erasmus Mundus Joint Master at the beginning of your studies.

Search and apply

A new batch of selected Erasmus Mundus Masters is added to the list each year.

- Students apply directly to the institution running their chosen programme.
- You can search the course catalogue for details of the latest programmes on offer.
- scan QR Code for Catalogue

- Search the course catalogue - https://www.eacea.ec.europa.eu/scholarships/erasmus-mundus-catalogue_en

The Erasmus Mundus Catalogue is updated yearly and lists the master's programmes that are currently supported by the European Union. Most offer Erasmus Mundus scholarships: some do not, being at the end of their funding period or having been temporarily allowed to use the Erasmus Mundus name after the end of their funding period.

- Most consortia require applications to be submitted between October and January for courses starting the following academic year.

- Interested students should click on the url of the master and directly contact the consortium for information on courses, application procedures and scholarships availability.

- Each master's website has all the details about the course of study, the list of the participating universities, the entry requirements and all the steps of the application process (with and without scholarship).

What you need

- You must
- have a bachelor's degree (first degree), or be in your last year of bachelor studies.
- graduate before the master's programme starts
- You may also apply if you demonstrate a bachelor's equivalent level of learning. This must be officially recognised, according to national legislation and practices, in the degree awarding country.

Advice with your application

The Erasmus Mundus Association has resources to help you apply, including course contacts, events with national volunteer representatives, and stories from successful applicants. https://www.em-a.eu/contact.

Grants for institutions

Erasmus+ also offers grants to higher education institutions to run EMJM programmes.
