The origin or source of the goods offered	GIZ reserves the right to ascertain the origin of the goods offered. This assessment will be conducted to ensure compliance with embargoes and other trade restrictions in place within the scope of GIZ's due diligence. This is particularly true of the EU sanctions against Russia, Belarus, Crimea and the affected parts of Eastern Ukraine¹ currently in place (primarily the EU Council Regulations No.: 833/2014 and 765/2006). By submitting the bid, the bidder undertakes towards GIZ the responsibility that in the event of a probable award, the bidder will provide all necessary support to enable GIZ to ensure compliance with the sanctions regime – this assurance is thus given prior to the award of any contract. This includes in particular the obligation, if so requested by GIZ, to complete a self-declaration to determine the origin of the goods offered and/or to provide GIZ with the required evidence of the origin of such goods. Should the bidder fail to meet these obligations or fail to do so within a reasonable period of time, this can result in their bid being excluded. A contract can only be awarded on completion of this assessment of the origin of the goods offered. Should this check give grounds for concern or reveal facts that constitute a contractual impediment, GIZ shall inform the bidder without delay. GIZ shall also reserve the right in such cases to award the contract to the next-ranked bidder in the competitive tender procedure. Self – Declaration as Annex 3 shall be signed and attach with the tender document.

Prevention of the financing of terrorism and compliance with embargoes	The contractor shall not make any funds or other economic resources available, directly or indirectly, to third parties that are included on a sanctions list issued by the United Nations and/or the EU. Declaration of Prevention of Terrorism as Annex 4 shall be signed and attached with the tender document.
Sample of Product - Not Applicable	As part of the evaluation process prior release the Purchase Order, GIZ will ask bidder to provide a sample of products based on the technical specification. The cost of the sample is borne by the bidder (by signing the bid form, the bidder agrees that there is no additional charge for sample of product to GIZ as a buyer) – Not Applicable
Quality Inspection	1. GIZ has the right to inspect the quality of the unit before receiving, provided that it gives notice of such intention at the latest when placing the written order. The quality inspection shall be conducted when the unit will be delivered. 2. Any defects shall be remedied by the bidder without delay at his/her/its own expense. 3. The quality inspection shall not in any way prejudice GIZ's warranty claims.
Language	All quotation documentation shall be in English
General Purchase Condition	Attached
Preliminary Examination – Completeness of quotation	Partial bids are not permitted. The bidder is not allowed to quote more than one item (options) with different price for one kind of item requested. The bidders who do not comply will be ruled out from the tender evaluation.
Evaluation of Quotation and award criteria	The Evaluation Committee will examine the quotation to determine whether they are complete and whether the offer complies with the Technical Requirement as per Annex 8 I Qualification of the contractor. Arithmetical errors will be rectified on the following basis: If there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected. If the Bidder does not accept the correction of errors, its quotation will be rejected. If there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words will prevail. Any offers which do not meet the requirements will be rejected. The PO will be awarded to the bidder that offers the lowest priced and /or pass technical qualifications.

Goods Packing and Marking	1. The Seller is responsible for the proper packing with consideration being given to the respective mode of shipment and bears the burden of evidence for this. GIZ will assume packing costs and other incidental costs only if this has been expressly agreed. 2. The type of packing must be suitable for the goods being transported, taking into account the mode of shipment used; it must be as environmentally-friendly as possible, appropriate for the climatic conditions and satisfy the legal requirements in the destination and transit countries. 3. Hazardous goods must be packed and marked in accordance with the laws and regulations applicable to the means of transport in question. 4. Packages shall be marked as directed by GIZ or GIZ's forwarding agent, without specific indication of their content or the company from which they come, and must comply with the regulations of the destination and transit countries. Each package is to be marked at least on two opposite sides, in accordance with GIZ's shipping instructions, with the gross and net weights, external dimensions and, where appropriate, with symbols for fragile goods, hook attachment points, indications of Centre of gravity and potential dangers. 5. The Seller is liable for damage attributable to inadequate or defective packing or marking. 6. The forwarding agents contracted by GIZ are instructed to refuse to accept packages which do not comply with the above conditions, or to arrange for the shortcomings to be remedied at the Seller's expense.

Submitting a Quotation after the deadline for submission of quotations will invalidate it, It is the exclusive responsibility of the offer or to ensure that the package containing the quotation reaches the designated address before the closing date/time, so that it is time stamped and acceptable for opening

The queries will be answered by E-mail, both queries and answers will be forwarded to all companies involved in the bidding process.

Thank you very much for your kind attention. Kindly looking forward to hearing from you.
